

Sunbelt Law Enforcement Agencies Upgrade to New TASER X2 ECDs

Sunbelt Law Enforcement Agencies Upgrade to New TASER X2 ECDs Sep 17, 2012 (Marketwire via COMTEX) - TASER International, Inc. (NASDAQ: TASR) today announced three significant TASER® X2™ electronic control device (ECD) orders in Florida and one in California, for a total of 951 X2s sold.

Specifically, TASER received the following orders for TASER X2 ECDs and various related accessories, with each order expected to ship in the third quarter of 2012:

- Orange County Sheriff's Office (FL) for 400 X2s
- Indian River County Sheriff's Department (FL) for 249 X2s
- Miami-Dade Police Department (FL) for 200 X2s
- Napa County Sheriff's Office (CA) for 102 X2s

The Florida orders were facilitated by DGG TASER, a long-time TASER ECD law enforcement distributor in Florida and Georgia.

"We are very glad to see our partner agencies take advantage of the latest TASER technology and leverage leading technology in their communities," said Teresa Meares, CEO of DGG TASER. "The TASER X2 significantly enhances officer safety while fulfilling law enforcement's commitment to protecting citizens."

"This order signifies a strong vote of confidence from the law enforcement community in TASER X2 ECDs, and is a tremendous win for TASER," said Rick Smith, Chief Executive Officer and Founder of TASER International. "We are thrilled that these four large and respected agencies have decided that X2s are an essential and cost-effective part of fulfilling their mission, to improve safety for their communities and officers."

The X2 was launched in 2011 as TASER's next generation ECD. It provides a second shot capability, charge metering for improved safety, Trilogy™ Logs with detailed firing and electrical pulse information, automatic shut off ability, compatibility with TASER CAM™ HD audio/video camera system, and free data upload access to TASER's EVIDENCE.com secure, cloud-based data storage and management solution service.
